

The Art of Collage: Pets Supply List

With Louise Mellon

Oct 1-3

9:30am – 1:00pm

Start collecting! While there will be available supplies you'll be more invested in your work and it will become a much more personal experience. Here's a list to get you started, though, please, let your imagination take control and collect anything that you may want to incorporate

Tab tops from soda and beer cans – sometimes they are pretty colors!

Old artwork that you might discard or that is ruined in a corner

Candy wrappers, shopping bags, packaging

Tiny toys

Scraps of fabrics, paper, ribbon, lace, yarn

Buttons, jewelry, beads

Anything with texture

Mirrors, glass, ceramic, china

Twigs, leaves, dried flowers, stones, shells

Notecards, old calendars, photographs

Pet fur/feather, pet collar, pet tag, paw prints

Sheet music

Wrapping paper

Games, cards, dice

Photos of your pet – bring the fun ones of them in action or a special moment or when they might have gotten into trouble or from a humorous angle. This workshop is about capturing a moment of your special pet or their personality.
